Any additional security shall remain in place regardless of any termination of the Agreement for as long as there are residual or contingent liabilities of the Merchant to the Acquirer. In case the Merchant refuses to provide such additional security as requested by the Acquirer, the latter shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect according to Section 4.3.2 of these Terms and Conditions. In addition, from time to time the Acquirer may establish a security deposit for the purpose of providing a source of funds to pay the Acquirer for any and all, actual and reasonably anticipated financial liabilities. Such security deposit will be agreed in additional deed to the Merchant Agreement and held in a manner to be readily identified by the Merchant and controlled by the Acquirer.

8.6. The Merchant also agrees to pay the Acquirer the amount of any fees, legal charges, fines or penalties assessed against the Acquirer by any regulatory authority, Card Association or Issuer for the Merchant’s violation of the by-laws, rules, regulations, guidelines, policy statements or programs threshold requirements of such parties.

The foreign exchange rates utilized will be determined by the various financial institutions involved in the process and may contain market adjustments to publicly available interbank or Card Scheme rates.

- iii. changes to the currency exchange rates.

23.4. The Acquirer may change the Agreement to make it more favorable to the Merchant by upgrading or enhancing the Services the Acquirer provides if there are no increased costs to the Merchant.

23.5. The Acquirer may also change any of the other terms of the Agreement if the change will have no effect on the Merchant's rights for any of the following reasons:

23.5.1. where: (i) the change would make the terms easier to understand or fairer to the Merchant; or (ii) the change would not be to the Merchant's disadvantage;

23.5.2. to cover: (i) the improvement of any Service or facility the Acquirer supply; (ii) the introduction of a new service or facility; (iii) the replacement of an existing Service or facility with a new one; or (iv) the withdrawal of a Service or facility which has become obsolete, or has not been used by the Merchant at any time;

If the change has a material adverse impact on the Merchant and the Merchant does not agree to the change, the Merchant may give written notice of its objection to the Acquirer within thirty days after receiving notice of the change. If the Acquirer receives such notice, the Acquirer will contact the Merchant to discuss the objections of the Merchant. If the Merchant continues to refuse to accept the change and the Acquirer refuses to withdraw the announced change, the Merchant may terminate the Merchant Agreement by giving at least two month written notice to the Acquirer (such termination notice to be sent at the latest 60 (sixty) days after the Merchant received notice of the change). The Merchant is not entitled to object to and shall not have the rights set out in this clause for any change which the Acquirer implements to comply with applicable law or requirements imposed by the relevant authorities and/or Scheme owners. For such imposed changes shorter notice periods may be applied by the Acquirer as are needed to comply with the relevant requirement.

25. WAIVER

To the extent that the Merchant becomes a debtor under any law regarding liquidation and/or bankruptcy, and such event does not result in the termination of these General Terms and Conditions and the Agreement, the Merchant hereby unconditionally and absolutely waives any right or ability that the Merchant may otherwise have had to oppose, defend against or otherwise challenge any motion filed by the Acquirer for relief from any automatic stay granted by law, to enforce any of Acquirer's rights or claims under the Agreement.

26. NO WAIVER

Any delay, waiver or omission by the Acquirer to exercise any right or power arising from any breach or default of the other Party in any of the terms, provisions or covenants of the Agreement or these Terms and Conditions shall not be construed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of the same or any other terms, provisions or covenants on the part of the other Party. All remedies afforded by the Agreement and these Terms and Conditions for a breach hereof shall be cumulative.

27. GOVERNING LAW

The Merchant Agreement and these GTCs are solely governed by the law of Republic of Bulgaria. All and any disputes arising from or related to the Agreement and the GTCs which cannot be resolved by the Parties amicably shall be settled by the competent Bulgarian court. The above shall not derogate from the Acquirer's right to file third party notice or to take any other legal means in the framework of proceedings between the Acquirer and any third party with regard to the Agreement and these Terms and Conditions in any court such proceedings shall be pending.

28. NULL PROVISIONS

If any provision in the Merchant Agreement (including the Acquirer Terms and Conditions) is declared null and void or inapplicable, said provision shall be deemed non-existent, and all other provisions of the Merchant Agreement (including the Acquirer Terms and Conditions) shall remain applicable. 30.2. The Merchant may only use an agent or subcontractor in relation to the performance of their obligations under the Agreement (including Merchant's obligations relating to the supply of goods and/or services which are the subject of Transactions) with the Acquirer's prior written consent and the Acquirer may withdraw that consent at any time. If the Merchant do use an agent or subcontractor for such purposes, the Merchant shall remain responsible for complying with the Agreement as though the Merchant were not using such agent or sub-contractor.
